STAMPEDE OF EMPLOYEES

Twenty-Five Hundred Make Mad
Rush for Exits, Trampling
Over Each Other.

New York, Oct. 20.—Six men were blown to bits, two were fatally injured and a score or more fatally hurt, when a big ten-ton boiler exploded today in the plant of the American Manufacturing Company, a jute concern at Green Point, L. I.

When the huge boiler let go, tearing the walls of the building and hurling mutilated bodies over a block, 2500 employees in the building stampeded for the exits. Two thousand of the employees were women and girls and they jammed the doorways and stairways, trampling upon each other in their panic-stricken efforts to leave the building. There were a dozen men at work on the big boiler when it exploded. Work had just begun for the day and the big jute factory was filled with employees. Without the least warning the big cylinder split like a bomb, hurling the workmen through the wrecked walls and driving four big cylinders heads up through three floors of the building.

All of the dead were machinists at work on the boiler. Three of them were blown through a side wall of the building and their bodies were found, horribly mangled, in the street. The others were found under the debris.

Balloons May Break Record

St. Louis, Oct. 20.—Of the ten balloons started in the international race four are reported today, and it still floats are probably flying toward Hudson Bay. The American II is one of them, the German Dufford and the two Swiss balloons being the others.

Of the balloons reported the Hamburg III has the longest flight 75 miles. The Hamburg's pilot sustained a broken arm in landing.

Quebec, Canada, Oct. 20.—It is possible that one of the St. Louis balloons may have broken all flight records by hundreds of miles. It is reported a large balloon passed over Kiskisink yesterday going eastward. This is 1,200 miles from St. Louis. Workmen at Toronto yesterday saw a large balloon carrying passengers near that city, and this may be the one seen at Kiskisink.

FAILS TO MAKE A STRONG CASE

London, Oct. 20.—The crown closed at one o'clock today the prosecution of Dr. Crippen and he prepared to take the stand in his own defense at once.

The consensus of opinion here is that the crown has failed to make a strong case. Attorney Tolin for the defense declared his intention of proving the remains found were not those of Mrs. Crippen.

That Dr. Crippen was informed of the plan to arrest him as soon as he stepped off the steamer in Canada and

KING MANUEL IS LOOKING FOR RICH AMERICAN WIFE

London, Oct. 20.—Accompanied by wealthy royal princess, and although his mother and his wife King Manuel of Portugal is today housed at Worcester on the estate of the Duke of Orleans. They disembarked from the royal yacht last night and went at once to Worcester. There was no public reception. The standing by is one peer of the nobility and his mother looked worried.

Gossip says Manuel is looking for a rich American wife. His mother is, and will prevent him from plotting against the Portugal republic while on gant. He cannot, now, marry a that the steward who informed him had arranged to hide him so that he could disappear on ship board and later slip off the ship after it docked was the sensational statement made by Crippen's lawyer today.

He says the note found in Crippen's state room had been written as a blind to make his disappearance look like suicide. Crippen finally decided that he had nothing to fear and discarded the plan. Crippen "took" the stand in the afternoon and did not appear at all nervous.

He said he and his wife had quarreled since 1904 and she often threatened to leave him. She finally did and he connected the story that she had died in California in an effort to hush up scandal. He said it was his firm belief that his wife had fled to Chicago to join Bruce Miller.

He denied giving his wife poison and admitted intimacy with Mr. Levee.

STRIKING MACHINISTS OF B. & O. REPUDIATE LAST WEEK'S VOTE

Cincinnati, Oct. 20.—Machinists of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railroad, after voting to return to work last Thursday, yesterday repudiated their action of last week and decided to remain on a strike until new terms are offered by the management. Last week in the Chillicothe, O. shops, a vote was taken on the terms of settlement, and the balloting resulted 50 to return to the proposition. This led the officials of the road to believe that the strike had been settled. Votes at other shops where the men were out resulted in a majority for returning to work, except at Washington, Ind.

The machinists declare that the proposition of settlement made by the company is ambiguous in its phraseology, and that they want General Superintendent of Motive Power Harris of the B. & O., who was at Chillicothe last week, to explain it to them. The vote cast in the strike proposition has been withdrawn until Mr. Harris acceded to their demands.

Another hitch in the negotiations is over the question whether or not piecework shall be introduced on the Southwestern system. While Mr. Harris did not openly state that piecework would be introduced, the men declare that the inference, that such will be the case is very plainly seen in his guarded statements. This is one point which they insist be cleared up before the vote on going back to work is again resumed.

Business Manager Stark of the strikers, was in Cincinnati yesterday and last night left for Washington, Ind., where the men voted 30 to 10 to continue the strike. Word of this action sent to Chillicothe caused the men at that point to take the action they have.

Noted Statesman Engaged in Many Political Battles
During Life Time.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Former United States Senator David B. Hill died at his residence, Woolferts Roost, at 3:45 this morning.

For two weeks he had been ill with a cold and complications. Last week the senator's condition was serious, but he had seemed to improve this week, and yesterday was in good spirits.

Mr. Hill's age and the tax upon his vitality, however, brought about a sudden change during the night. The only person in attendance at the time of the senator's death was his nurse, David Bennett Hill was the last of the old line politicians who made

GOV. HARMON ANSWERS QUESTIONS PROPOUNDED BY REPUBLICAN EDITOR

GOVERNOR FACED DEATH.
Ravenna, Oct. 20.—In coming in an auto to Ravenna Governor Harmon and his party had a narrow escape from serious injury and perhaps death. At the Erie crossing the chauffeur's view was obstructed by buildings and he did not see the approach of a fast train until almost upon the tracks. A quick application of the brake stopped the motor car within a few feet of the rails. It was a close call.

Ravenna, O., Oct. 20.—Governor Judson Harmon yesterday continued his triumphal campaign tour, speaking to immense crowds at every stop. Among the places where he spoke were Akron and Kent.

Both parties are making a hard fight for Portage county, once a Republican stronghold. The politicians of both parties agree that the Governor's interior county meetings were the largest held in 25 years.

At Akron the Governor was asked concerning the charges made by Warren G. Harding at Steubenville that he was holding back evidence in the canal graft cases.

"I have turned over everything to Attorney General Duman," was his statement in reply. "I don't understand what Mr. Harding means. If he or any one else knows something about grafting in that department he or they should turn it over to General Duman, as I have done."

There is, however, reason for believing that the Governor is in possession of certain correspondence which bears upon the methods of operation in the Canal department, but which is in no wise connected with any pecuniary interest, perhaps the knowledge of this fact that causes the anxiety and uneasiness in the bosoms of the Republican state leaders.

The Governor only smiles when this subject is broached. Upon his belated arrival here he found the largest hall in town filled to overflowing. Prompted by a series of questions propounded to him by the editor of the local Republican paper, Governor Judson Harmon last night constructed his address from the replies he made to these queries. In so doing he used some of the most vigorous language and unfolded some facts not hitherto known to the public.

One of the principal queries was: "How many grafters have you discharged from office during the 21 months of your Governorship?" His reply was: "I discharged two that Mr. Harding says were grafters. They were State Fire Marshal W. S. Rogers and State Inspector of State Navy Steam Engineers, William C. Kennedy."

"I removed them because they were extravagant, but Mr. Harding holds that they are grafters because they charged their traveling expenses under the decision of Attorney General Sheets, a fellow Republican."

I found a ring among the stewards of the public institutions, and I let every one of them go. They were not all grafters, but an organization of office holders means bad business, and I broke it up."

"I demanded the resignation of State Bank Superintendent B. B. Semour because he had been connected with a bank that was concerned in the Treasury graft. I don't say that he was a grafter, but his bank was."

Another question was: "What have you to say to the charge that Wall Street and the interests thereof are back of your candidacy for Governor?" When he read it the crowd laughed and a dog barked.

"Why even a dog would bark at such a question," said the Governor, who then asked: "When was it that Wall Street was back of a Democrat?" The interests he speaks of were those that went to Washington and had a grip so strong through Cannon and Aldrich, that the Republican party broke its promise to revise the tariff downward.

"If Wall Street and the interests are behind me they are so far behind that they will never catch up."

Another question read: "If you are sincere in your graft allegations, what have you to say in explanation of your appointment of John W. Zuber, W. L. Finley and Hamilton G. Deweese?"

"I say that John W. Zuber is an honest gentleman," was his response. "He is no grafter. When he found that he was not entitled to certain traveling expenses, he promptly returned the money to the treasury. I say the same of William L. Finley."

"The Standard Oil company to punish him for doing his duty in a case brought by the state tried to cripple the state oil inspection system by concentrating all the inspection at Lima. Acting under the advice of a Republican Attorney General, he kept the Democratic history in New York state when that party secured control of the state government following the Stilwell and Half Breed Republican fight which involved President Chester A. Arthur and Senator Roscoe Conklyn. He was for years in absolute control of the Democratic party organization in the state and his bitter conflicts with the Grover Cleveland organization finally culminated in Cleveland abandoning New York state as his home. As a fighter Hill was the last of the old line politicians who made department alive and efficient until the General Assembly could correct the law, which it did. Mr. Finley is no grafter either.

"As for Mr. Deweese, he was appointed to office by the state Insurance Commissioner."

"Is it a fact that if both you and Mr. Pomeroy are elected you will shortly resign and turn the office of Governor over to him in order that you may give your whole time to the work of securing the nomination for President?" was still another query.

"No, most emphatically no," was the answer. "The question is not a gentlemanly one, but I will say that there is no such arrangement. I don't think that any American citizen should seek the Presidency."

"You have had much to say in this campaign about George B. Cox. Is it not a fact that you are now Governor by virtue of the influence and support of Cox?"

"As your home is in Hamilton county and you have always been more or less interested in politics, how does it happen that you are now opposing him for the first time?"

"This brace of questions were answered together by the Governor.

"I dare the gentleman to ask those questions in Cincinnati," he said in droll fashion. "and I'll let him pick his own crowd down there. More than that, I'll pay his railroad fare to Cincinnati."

The speaker then went on to narrate his opposition for 20 years to the machine in Cincinnati, an opposition that he was supporting when President Taft, in 1908, denounced Cox.

The question, however, admits that I am opposing him," he commented. "I know a man who isn't." A laugh followed and Harding's name was called out, showing that the shot had hit the mark. "Even if it is the first time, I should be given some credit, but it isn't the first time."

One of his regrets as a citizen of Cincinnati was that it was better known as the home of George B. Cox than of the President of the United States, W. H. Taft, a melancholy tale, but a true one.

The editor may be a learned man and acquainted in foreign parts, but he is the biggest ignoramus about conditions in Cincinnati I ever heard of," was his parting shot.

Then he asked the editor to inquire of the Republican leaders why they had prevented the General Assembly from carrying out its early recommendations to revise the graft probe in Cincinnati, which the courts had interrupted.

Leaving the questions, he told the story of the fight between Cox and him in Cincinnati and the State Treasury and dared his inquirer to publish the Cox-McKinnon letters and the story of that crime. When he ended his address the great crowd gave him a rattling round of applause and cheered him as he passed through its ranks to begin an automobile dash to Kent where another large crowd awaited him.

The meeting here was presided over by Henry H. Riddle, the leading manufacturer of Ravenna, known as the "Ironmaster" of the city.

He introduced the Governor as the greatest man in the state of Ohio.

Charles H. Graves, the nominee for Secretary of State, took up the speaking in behalf of the Governor.

At the Kent meeting Governor Harmon was introduced to a large and enthusiastic crowd largely of railroad hands by John G. Shafter, the nominee for Representative. There he also reviewed the Ravenna question with the railroad business as receiver.

BRIBERS NAMED BY FOELKER

Noted Men Alleged to Have Raised Money to Kill Anti-Racing Bill

HALF MILLION PUT UP

Reporters Accused of Accepting
Money Along With Legislators
Say It Is Malicious Lie.

New York, Oct. 20.—Representative Otto G. Foelker, the man who was carried from his sick bed into the state senate chamber to cast the deciding vote for the anti-racing bill urged by Governor Hughes, took the stand as a sworn witness in the legislative graft probe, and told the Merritt joint legislative committee the details of an alleged attempt in 1908 by former State Senator Frank J. Gardner, who is now under arrest, to buy his vote. Gardner was called to attorney of Kings county (Brooklyn) also repeated a conversation which he says he had with Gardner in March last and which previously had been referred to as a confession.

Mr. Elder did not vouch as of his own knowledge for the truth of what he repeated, but he gave for which it might be worth testimony that involved more names of men living and names of men dead in politics, business and political life, coupled with the distribution of bigger sums of money than anything yet heard in either the Alldis hearing or any of the previous sessions of the present committee of inquiry.

The narrative created a sensation. Briefly, it told of a dinner at Delmonico's of prominent men friendly to the race tracks, of $500,000 subscribed to corruption fund, of the distribution of this fund to politicians and to well known political correspondents at Albany of the New York newspapers and of the secret grievances of the late Senator Patrick McGarren that worked for the passage of the bill against his own wishes and his own associates.

"In the month of March," said Mr. Elder, "I sent for Gardner through his lawyer who wanted to know what I wanted him for. I told him for a personal chat, and shortly afterward Gardner came to my private office. I told him I wanted to know about the efforts made at Albany to defeat the race track bills. I told him that I had indictments against certain men and that his information might help."

"Finally Gardner said: 'I don't mind telling you that there was a meeting at Delmonico's, at which money was subscribed.' He mentioned the names of several men who were there, including members of the Metropolitan Turf association and the bookmakers. He said that among the men there—that I remember—were James R. Keene, David Mitchell, Mr. Parsons, Harry Payne Whitney and Charles H. Hyde."

Charles H. Hyde is now chairman of New York city and was formerly law partner of Mayor Gaynor. James R. Keene is the well known racing man and millionaire stock market operator. Mr. Parsons was not further identified.

"He," (Gardner) continued Mr. Elder, "said there was a dispute about who should handle the money. Finally, he said $125,000 was given to James Gaffney to take care of three or four members of the legislature—Tammany men, he said."

James C. Gaffney is president of the Gaffney Construction Company, which handled many municipal contracts.

"I asked him the total amount of this fund," the witness resumed, "and he said 'Oh, considerable.' I told him that I had heard $500,000. He said if I had guessed $500,000 I would have been nearer the mark. Of this sum, he said, Senator Grady got only $10,000, and I might imagine what the others got."

"Senator McGarren, he said was angry because he did not have the

"PHILLY" MAKES IT THREE STRAIGHT

West Side Baseball Park, Oct. 20.—When the Athletics and Cubs got together for the third game today, the thermometer was away down and a hangover from a rain storm in the shape of thick fog blanketed the park.

About 15,000 fans were jammed in the unreserved seats at eleven o'clock. The Cubs appeared about 1 o'clock and began practicing. They were given a warm reception. When the Athletics appeared they also received an ovation, tender especially.

The batteries were Ruelbach and Kling for Chicago, Coombs and Thomas for Philadelphia.

The Cubs offset the Athletics' one run in the first inning by getting one themselves, but the Athletics came back strong with two in the second. The lineup:

Chicago—Sheppard, 1b.; Schulte, rf.; Hoffman, cf.; Chance, 1b.; Zimmerman, 2b.; Steinfield, 3b.; Tinker, ss.; Kling, c.; Ruelbach, p. Philadelphia—Strunk, cf.; Lord, 1b.; Collins, 2b.; Baker, 3b.; Davis, 1b.; Murphy, rf.; Barry, ss.; Coombs, c.

Ground rules were adopted, giving a two-base hit for any ball hit into the crowd.

First Inning. Athletics—Ruelbach took plenty of time, and with three and two strikes the latter was waited and drew a pass. Lord sacrificed, Ruelbach to Chance. Collins flew to Sheppard. Baker singled through center, scoring Strunk. Baker out stealing. Kling to Tinker. One run. Chicago—Sheppard walked. Schulte doubled into the right field bleachers. Hoffman flied to Strunk and Sheppard scored after the catch. Schulte went to third. Chance was caught receiving as he came to bat, but fanned. Zimmerman flew out to Strunk. One run.

Second Inning. Athletics—Davis waited and was rewarded with a pass. Murphy sacrificed, Steinfield to Chance. Barry hit the left field bleachers for a double. Davis scored. Thomas flew to Schulte. Coombs doubled, scoring Barry. Strunk out, Zimmerman to Chance. Two runs.

Chicago—Steinfeldt out on infield hit to Barry. Tinker doubled to right. Baker retired Kling at first. Tinker moved to third on the play. Beaumont batted for Ruelbach. Beaumont drew a pass by grace of a liberal decision by O'Day. Sheppard flied to left, scoring Tinker and Beaumont. Hoffman fanned. Two runs.

Third Inning. Athletics—McIntyre went to the mound in place of Ruelbach. Lord hit the first ball to Sheppard. McIntyre's good work Monday was remembered. Collins drove a hot one to Steinfieldt, who knocked it down but couldn't field it in time to catch Collins, who was given a hit. Baker singled to right and Schulte booted the ball, allowing Collins to score and Baker reached third. Davis was hit and went to first. Murphy hit into right field bleachers for a home run, scoring Baker and Davis ahead of him. A long wrangle ensued, but the umpires allowed the play to stand as a home run, as the ball had sailed clear over the crowd and had not bounded into the field. Chance protested so vigorously that he was chased to the bench. Archer relieving him. Pfeister replaced McIntyre. Barry rapped Pfeister's first offering to deep center for a two-sacker. Thomas hit to Tinker, but Archer dropped the assist and the runner was safe. Barry scoring. Coombs hit into a double play, Zimmerman to Tinker to Archer. Five runs.

It is raining hard. Chicago—Archer was retired, Baker to Davis. Zimmerman flew out to Lord. Steinfieldt fanned. No runs.

Fourth Inning. Athletics—Rain is falling in a drizzle, making the paths slippery and the ball hard to handle. Strunk dropped a hard fly into Hoffman's mitt. Lord drove a clear single to center. Collins fanned Lord. Pfeister to Zimmerman. Collins died stealing. Kling to Tinker. No runs.

Chicago—Tinker singled to right. Kling hit to Baker, forcing Tinker at second, Baker to Barry, doubling. Kling Barry to Davis. Pfeister was an easy out on Baker's assist. No runs.

Fifth Inning. Athletics—Baker was retired, Zimmerman to Archer. Davis lined over Tinker's head for a single. Murphy flew to Hoffman. Barry forced Davis. Tinker to Zimmerman. No runs. Chicago—Sheppard beat out a bunt and Schulte struck out. Hoffman flew to right and Sheppard sprinted for third, but was caught a mile. Davis got the put out of Sheppard. No runs.

Sixth Inning. Athletics—Thomas was thrown out, Tinker to Archer. Coombs popped a fly to Zimmerman. Strunk fanned. No runs.

Chicago—Coombs and Pfeister have both settled down and are going easily, but the team play of the Athletics seems much snother than that of the Cubs. The crowd was not slow about voicing its displeasure at the collapse of the Cubs and Sheppard was roared for getting caught at third on Hoffman's fly in the fifth. Thomas retired Archer at first. Zimmerman fanned. No runs.

Seventh Inning. Athletics—Lord flew out to Zimmerman, a sensational play. Zimmerman caught the ball after a four-foot jump. Collins out at first, Steinfieldt to Archer. Baker reached first on Steinfieldt's fumble. Davis hit safely to right. Murphy took first on Tinker's error, filling the bases. Barry took first when Steinfieldt muffed an easy one, Baker, Davis and Murphy scoring. Thomas drew a base on balls. Coombs hit safely to center, scoring Barry. Lord went out, Zimmerman to Archer. Four runs.

Chicago—Tinker out, Baker to Davis. Kling retired Collins to Davis. Pfeister fanned. No runs.

Eighth Inning. Athletics—Collins flew out to Schulte. Baker was retired, Zimmerman to Archer. Davis doubled to left. Murphy out, Tinker to Archer. No runs.

Chicago—Sheppard walked. Schulte flied to Murphy. Hoffman doubled through Barry. Archer fanned. Coombs made a wild pitch, Sheppard and Hoffman scoring. Zimmerman flew to Murphy. Two runs.

Ninth Inning. Athletics—Barry fouled to Kling. Thomas out to Archer, unassisted. Coombs singled to center. Strunk out, Zimmerman to Archer. No runs.

Chicago—Steinfeldt lined to Strunk. Tinker singled to left. Kling fanned. Needham batted for Pfeister. Tinker stole second. Needham fouled to Baker. No runs. Phi 1 2 5 0 0 0 4 0 0 0—12 14 0 Chi 1 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0—5 3 5 Batteries: Coombs and Thomas; Ruelbach, McIntyre, Pfeister and Kling.

Walter E. Kinney and Fred A. Fitzgerald, two popular B. & O. boys, will leave this evening for Chicago to witness Saturday's game in the world's series. Both are dyed-in-the-wool rooters and before leaving made a bet with friends that the Athletics would win the series. In case they lose they have put up a forfeit agreeing to purchase a mule, which they are to ride double and saddleless to Columbus and return, the trip not to occupy over forty-eight hours or forfeit their bet. The boys have engaged ox carts and will make their headquarters at the Palmer House for the next few days, intending to visit a number of Newark friends and take in the sights of the Windy City on the lake.

GIANTS' PITCHERS POUNDED FREELY

New York, Oct. 20.—The Americans fell upon the National pitchers, Ames and Wiltse, and hammered their curves all over the ball park Wednesday and won the sixth post-season game, 10 to 2. Four doubles, two singles, two bases on balls and an error by Doyle sent eight runs over the plate for the Americans in the second inning. The Nationals took to Doyle's curves kindly in the third inning, driving home two runs. Quinn was called to the pitching mound and kept them from scoring with his spit-ball delivery. The game now stands: Nationals 3 won; Americans, 2 won and 1 game tied.

MICHIGAN AT STATE SATURDAY

Just about all that Tom Jones learned Saturday of the Michigan eleven's system has been imparted to the Ohio State varsity, a part of Wednesday's practice being devoted to imparting the information. Under the instruction of the assistant coach, the scrub team represented as best it could the Wolverine eleven.

It was made plain to the varsity that it will not be a simple task Saturday. Legislation has forced Yost to cur away from the old pull-and-haul type of play and brought into use an attack that can be varied when the occasion demands it.

State players have been given to understand that Michigan team is not invincible. They know that it was tied by Case and all but beaten by the Michigan A's. They are convinced a chance to win can't be lost on Saturday. Unless some of the regulars show up, Michigan should meet with a severe test.

In a strict sense, Coach Jones has by this week, but not the players, set their work. He has on one hand, a work as being a part of this effort to impress upon the players the necessity for clean play when the whistle blows. Jones is forcing itself along close to the position. It has been a long time since Michigan has been so near the middle of the field.

Household Economy

How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2, by Making it at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready-made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc.

Pinex is the nearest valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Convention of

Christian Endeavorers

At Granville, Ohio

The Christian Endeavorers of Licking County are to gather at the Presbyterian church in Granville, Friday and Saturday of this week, in their annual convention. The sessions commence Friday afternoon at 2:30, with a conference of delegates, and in the evening a popular meeting, addressed by Rev. R. M. Huston, of Mansfield, one of the state superintendents of the Tenth Legion. There will be but the morning session on Saturday, but the will be most interesting in discussion and practical talks.

Effort is being made to get as many Endeavorers to attend the evening session as possible, and those living in Newark, are most cordially invited to attend. It would be well for those who can, to take the six o'clock car as very likely the seven o'clock car will be crowded to its capacity. The evening session will commence about 7:15 and be out in time to take the 9:30 car home.

Don't forget that tomorrow and Saturday are the last days you can register. Polls open from 8 a. m. until 2 p. m. and from 4 to 9 p. m.

DEPENDABLE PROPRIETARY MEDICINES.

It must be admitted by every fair minded, intelligent person that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for 30 years and today hold a record for thousands upon thousands of cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you are not yet registered you will have to do so tomorrow or Saturday. Polls open from 8 a. m. until 2 p. m. and from 4 to 9 p. m.

Spoiled His Act.

A musical artist announced to his friends that he had a feature for his act that was calculated to make the whole profession sit up and take notice. Several days later he was asked to divulge his plans.

"Oh, that's all off," was the answer. "Well, if it was such a wonderful thing what was it?" was the general inquiry.

"I had planned to have a real skeleton," the musical man replied, "with its ribs tuned up so that I could play music on it like a xylophone."

"Great! Why aren't you going to do it?"

The musician heaved a sigh of disappointment. "I tried it," he answered, "but some body sold me the skeleton of a ticklish man and I couldn't hit the ribs."—Youngstown Telegram.

LITTLE VIRTUES.

Do not be troubled because you have not great virtues. God made a million spears of grass where he made one tree. The earth is fringed and carpeted, not with forests, but with grasses. Only have enough of little virtues and common fidelities and you need not mourn because you are neither a hero nor a saint.—Henry Ward Beecher.

A Fair Sized Trout.

The gentleman was strolling across a large estate when he came upon a man fishing. "What sort of fish do you catch here?" he said.

"Mostly trout," replied the man.

"How many have you caught?"

"About ten or twelve, sir."

"What is about the heaviest you have caught?" continued the gentleman.

"Well, I don't know the weight, but the water sunk two or three feet when I pulled it out."

Divides the Waters.

Situated exactly at the highest point of the divide of the Rocky mountains, on the Crow's Nest division of the Canadian Pacific railway, in British Columbia, is a hotel. When it rains in the mountains the water which falls on the eastern slope of the hotel roof trickles away to join a tiny rivulet, which in due time mingles its waters with the Atlantic. The water falling just beyond the ridgepole, on the other side of the roof, flows westerly and ultimately into the Pacific.

Lots of Them.

"There is one thing which has rather puzzled me."

"What is that?"

"When money talks does it always talk cents?" Baltimore American.

His Argument.

"Dear, I only play poker for fun."

"But you bet, don't you?"

"Well, there wouldn't be any fun without a little betting."—Pittsburg Post.

Mr. W. V. Jordan, Esq., Newark, O.: Dear Sir,

A Fair Sized Trout.

The gentleman was strolling across a large estate when he came upon a man fishing. "What sort of fish do you catch here?" he said.

"Mostly trout," replied the man.

"How many have you caught?"

"About ten or twelve, sir."

"What is about the heaviest you have caught?" continued the gentleman.

"Well, I don't know the weight, but the water sunk two or three feet when I pulled it out."

Divides the Waters.

Situated exactly at the highest point of the divide of the Rocky mountains, on the Crow's Nest division of the Canadian Pacific railway, in British Columbia, is a hotel. When it rains in the mountains the water which falls on the eastern slope of the hotel roof trickles away to join a tiny rivulet, which in due time mingles its waters with the Atlantic. The water falling just beyond the ridgepole, on the other side of the roof, flows westerly and ultimately into the Pacific.

"But you bet, don't you?"

"Well, there wouldn't be any fun without a little betting."—Pittsburg Post.

"OHIO OUTLOOK DARK, TAFT IS INFORMED"

The above are the headlines of the Ohio State Journal to an Associated Press dispatch of this morning under date of New York, describing an interview between President Taft and several leading Ohio Republican politicians, including Myron T. Herrick, regarding the situation in Ohio.

The reports brought to Mr. Taft were "not enthusiastic," in the language of the dispatch. The President also had interviews with leading New York Republicans and from them he learned that "conditions were far from reassuring." All of which means that the great tidal wave of reform is still sweeping upward and it cannot be stopped.

Governor Harmon's majority in Ohio is growing hourly and promises to be many thousands larger than a few weeks ago.

GOOD, BETTER, BEST

A Republican paper says, "you can fool the people once but you can't repeat it with the same instruments after they have found themselves deceived."

That's encouraging. Just see how long Cox and Guilbert and the old state house ring succeeded in fooling the people—until the brief interruption of Governor Patterson's administration lasting six months in 1904 was followed by the administration of Governor Harmon in 1909.

Here are Dick and Harding and Cox and Watkins and others of the same old instruments trying to fool the people of Ohio into giving them complete control of the state house again. It will be no reflection on them if they succeed, but it will be a reflection upon the people of Ohio who boast of their intelligence and yet would permit themselves to be so easily fooled.

Governor Harmon has MADE GOOD. It is up to the people of Ohio to do BETTER this year, to give Governor Harmon another term, supported in other state offices by his associates on the state ticket and by a legislature with a Democratic majority in both branches, that all working together harmoniously may do their BEST to complete the state house cleaning so thoroughly begun by the present governor.

And now the tidal wave has gotten so hot in the old graft state of Pennsylvania that the Republican bosses there are talking of changing their shady candidate for Governor by forcing him off the ticket and putting another man on. It is a desperate case of swapping horses while crossing the stream, but the tidal wave against graft is spreading everywhere and is irresistible.

REPUBLICAN EMISSARIES

Seek to Deceive Farmers as to Land Appraisalment and Embitter Them Against Governor Harmon.

Columbus, O., Oct. 19.—Evidences of a well-concocted, though secret, plan to embitter the farmers of the state against Governor Judson Harmon, under the false pretense that he is personally responsible for the increase in property valuations under the quadrennial appraisalment law, have been coming to Democratic state headquarters for weeks. Agents of the Republican organization have been traveling in the rural sections and have been quietly telling the taxpayers that the new law was a corporation device to make the agricultural lands pay the bulk of the taxes, while city and public service company property was to be permitted to escape.

The fact is that the law was passed by the present General Assembly by practically a unanimous vote, the author being Senator Milton E. Rathburn of Meigs county, one of the progressive Republican group. Its enactment was agreed upon before Governor Harmon took his seat, having been endorsed by civic, commercial and agricultural bodies and was supported without regard to partisanship. At the last session Governor Harmon promoted an amendment limiting the taxes to be raised under the new assessment to that raised in 1909, plus 6 per cent.

Wednesday afternoon, before leaving for a campaigning tour Governor Harmon made public a letter which he had received from Oscar E. Bradford of Greene county, a prominent lecturer on science and a trustee of the Ohio State University, who has long been identified with farming interests. With it went his response to the inquiry contained, which clearly defines the governor's attitude and explains the workings of the law.

The governor takes occasion in this letter of response sharply to rap the Republican leaders for their unfair action in trying to deceive the voters.

The letter of Mr. Bradford to the governor is as follows:

"Republican politicians have been working secretly among the farmers of this county trying to make them believe that under the new valuations of real estate made by land appraisers this year they will have to pay more taxes during the next four years.

"As I understand the new tax laws and the plan for having all property assessed at its true value in money, in compliance with Article 12 of the state constitution, the taxes to be levied on the appraisements of real estate made this year do not take effect until December 1st, 1911 are due; that personal property, including intangible assets, and corporation values are to be raised in proportion next year, so that taxes on full valuations will all take effect at the same time.

"It is also my understanding that if all property appraisements are brought up to the constitutional requirement, i. e., full value in money, we will pay a less amount of taxes because of a lower limit being fixed by law upon the tax rate, and the low rate will, I hope, induce property heretofore hidden to come out and be listed, thus swelling the duplicate, and encourage a still lower rate, and then those now paying their full share will have still less to pay.

"Believing that an attempt is being made to deceive the owners of farms and homes about the new valuation to go into effect next year, I write this letter to acquaint you of the clandestine methods being pursued, and to ask you whether I am mistaken about the provisions of the new tax laws."

Governor Harmon's response to the inquiry is as follows:

"I am glad to get your letter. Your interpretation of the new tax laws is quite correct. I supposed that by now every taxpayer in the state understood the tax situation, but there seems to be no limit to the capacity of some men for falsifying and distorting facts. I will give you the plain truth, and it will require but few words.

"It was clear that the new appraisalment of real estate all over the state was bound to raise valuations generally. The result would be higher taxes unless some precaution was taken. So in my annual message last winter I said:

"A general increase in realty valuations is to be expected, unless Ohio is the only state which has gone backward. The first thing to be done is to make it certain that the rise in valuation shall lower the tax rate, so that the people will be asked for no greater amount of taxes than heretofore. It is what they have to pay that counts, and not the valuation or the rate by which this is figured. So a bill will be presented, which should be promptly passed at the beginning of the session, reducing the present limitation of the tax rate in proportion to the increase in the duplicate, whatever that increase may be. This will prevent any rise in the total amount of taxes levied, without the vote of the people; but each owner will have less to pay when the total required is spread over a duplicate enlarged by values and property heretofore omitted.

"I also insisted on further limiting the total levy for all purposes to 1 per cent each year. It was made 1 1/2 per cent instead. This was done by the Langdon tax bill, which also left the appointment of City Board of Review in the hands of three state officers, to be dictated, as heretofore, as to both Democratic and Republican members by the local Republican bosses.

"Mr. Harding is unfair enough to say I refused to sign the bill fixing a limit

HARMON HAS MADE GOOD

All over the state of Ohio you can hear the people say, "Harmon has made a good governor and we want him to have another term. He has uncovered rascality at the state house, as he promised in the campaign two years ago he would do, and he ought to have another term to finish it up."

That's the point exactly. Governor Harmon HAS MADE GOOD, and all the noise and mud-slinging by Mr. Harding and Republican newspapers is fooling nobody.

Harmon ought to have another term to finish the work he has begun. But he ought to have a full staff of state officials and a Democratic majority in both branches of the legislature to help him do it.

After witnessing the obstruction and resistance on the part of a Republican legislature and some other state officials, against which Governor Harmon has had to contend, there can be no dispute that he would have accomplished much more if a Democratic legislature and all his associates on the Democratic ticket had been elected two years ago.

Don't make the same mistake this time. Let your motto be, HARMON AND A CLEAN SWEEP, for Governor Harmon HAS MADE GOOD.

AFTER ELECTION!

The Republicans promise to make public the source of campaign contributions—after the November Congressional election.

The report of the standpat Republican members of the Ballinger investigating committee is to be made public after the election.

Nothing further is to be said of the $500,000 Taft-Humphrey ship subsidy grab bill until after election.

The soft pedal is to be applied to the Oklahoma Indian lands thievery—until after election.

Nothing is to be done with the Lorimer investigation—until after election.

No step is to be taken in the sugar trust-friar lands Philippine scandal—until after election.

The National Monetary Commission, of which Senator Aldrich is chairman, will not make its report recommending a central Government Bank—until after the November election.

And President Taft and his standpat followers will not quit talking about economy—until after the November election!

OHIO'S OPPORTUNITY

Attorney General Denman is pursuing most questionable tactics as a state official and as a candidate for re-election.

At Columbus he has acted only on the advice of Governor Harmon in the pursuit of grafting and venality of the treasury and canal scandals. On the stump he claims to have "stolen

INDEPENDENT PAPERS FOR GOV. HARMON

The Toledo News-Bee, Cleveland Press, Columbus Citizen, Akron Press and Cincinnati Post, have declared for Judson Harmon for Governor.

These papers state, in an extended editorial, their reason for the stand they take, which seems to be opposition to machine boss government. They say that "Harding's election means a victory for the old guard, the Coxes, Dicks, Browns and the entire host of lesser reactionary bosses."

Also, "that the best thing for the average man in Ohio to do this year is to defeat by an overwhelming vote, Harding, Dick, Cox and the entire Aldrich-Cannon standpat outfit."

In addition to these the Columbus Dispatch and the Cleveland News, both Republican papers, are also supporting Harmon.

ODDS OFFERED ON HARMON'S ELECTION

(Enquirer.)

A gentleman who called on the sporting editor of the Enquirer last night said he had $2,000 to wager at odds of 10 to 8 that Harmon will be elected.

A resident of Cleveland, whose name will be given to any one interested, has offered to wager from $1,000 to $5,000 even that Harmon will be elected governor, and $500 even that the legislature will be Democratic on joint ballot.

HIGH TARIFF ALWAYS MEANS INCREASED PRICES

It is the history of all protectionist countries that tariff revision upward means increased prices. It is not generally realized how rapidly the price of tariff-protected articles rose after the passage of the Dingley law. From July 1, 1897, to January 1, 1900, the first three years following the Dingley law, the cost of living advanced 31 per cent or at the rate of 9 per cent a year. More trusts were formed during this than any other similar period in our history.

The price of wire nails rose from $1.36 a keg, in August, 1898, to $2.53 in December, 1899—160 per cent in 18 months.

The price of barbed wire rose from $1.65 per 100 pounds, in August, 1897, to $4.12, in December, 1899—160 per cent in two years.

The Dingley tariff made the trusts, and the trusts put up the prices. The reason the steel trust, the lumber trust and the harvester trust are willing to contribute large sums to the campaign funds of Republican candidates for congress is that they can collect from the people in new profits whatever sums they may invest in the election of "stand pat" candidates.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Mischievous Echo

ONE evening as daddy was returning home he overheard mother scolding Jack for making Evelyn. That put daddy in mind of a story, so the same evening, after telling Jack it was time to make fun of his sister, he told the two youngsters about a mischievous echo of which he had once heard.

"This happened in a small town in the country," began daddy. "The people of the town were very proud of an echo in a mountain near their town. It really was a wonderful echo, for it repeated five or six times anything that was shouted at it.

"In this town there lived some boys who were fond of playing tricks upon people. They thought it great fun to go out at night and do things that made trouble for grownup folks. Of course they were well scolded for it and sometimes they were severely punished, but that did not stop them. One day a few of the boys got together and said, 'Let's have some fun with the old echo.' 'All right,' said the others. 'How shall we do it?' 'I'll tell you,' said the leader. 'And this is what they did:

"They hid themselves in some bushes near the place of the echo, and whenever any one came along to try the echo by shouting at it the boys would shout back something different. Thus if a man would yell 'Oh!' at the echo, expecting it to answer back 'Oh!' the boys would shout 'Ah!' all together. Another person called out 'Ah!' and the echo answered 'Oh!'

"Of course the people were puzzled, so they sent to Washington to ask the government to send some one to find out what was the matter with their echo. They had come to be fond of the echo, and it grieved them to find that something was wrong with it. They thought the government in Washington must have an echo doctor.

"When the wise man came, first he tried the echo. He found that whatever he yelled came back wrong. There's something very strange about this,' he said to himself. 'I'll have to try the echo from the other side of the mountain.' So, without telling any one what he was about to do, he climbed up on the other side of the mountain and came upon the boys just as they were answering some one who was trying the echo. 'Ah!' said the wise man. 'Now I know what is the matter with the echo.'

"And before the boys knew what he was about he jumped among them, caught two of them by the ears and marched them back to the village. 'Here is what is the matter with your echo,' he said to the people. 'I recommend a good dose of spanking.'

WHAT'S THE USE

To Keep a "Coffee Complexion."

A lady says: Postum has helped my complexion much. That my friends say I am growing young again. My complexion used to be coffee colored, sallow and yellow, but it is now clear and rosy as when I was a girl.

"I was induced to try Postum by a friend who had suffered in the same way. I had suffered from indigestion, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells."

"After I had used Postum a week I was so much better that I was afraid it would be lost. But now two years have passed and I am a well woman. I owe it all to leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place."

"I had drunk coffee all my life. I suspected that it was the cause of my trouble, but it was not until I actually quit coffee and started to try Postum that I became certain; then all my troubles ceased and I am now well and strong again."

"There's a reason."

LOOKED GOOD TO YOUNG TURKS DID SLEYMAN

LOOKED GOOD TO YOUNG TURKS DID SLEYMAN

THEY WANTED TO MAKE HIM A SOLDIER IN THE TURKISH ARMY.

Rug Man Meets With Unpleasant Experiences in His Native Land. Now in Newark.

Mr. A. A. Sleyman, who visits Newark periodically with a line of Persian rugs, arrived in the city last night after passing four months in the Orient. When interviewed by the Advocate, Mr. Sleyman was congratulating himself on being back in "blessed America" once again. When Mr. Sleyman returned to his old home, Damascus, the country had just undergone a great revolution. The old sultan assumed control of the government. Before Mr. Sleyman succeeded in leaving the country, however, he was very much awake to the situation, and many were the times that he longed for the shores of his adopted country. When the young Turks first caught a glimpse of Mr. Sleyman's many forms, they exclaimed in chorus: "What a fine addition he will make to our army," and immediately began to make overtures to their naturalized American brother, with a view of inducing him to lead the strenuous military life. In fact, their overtures became so persistent and threatening that Mr. Sleyman began to despair of ever seeing America again.

Mr. Sleyman became a naturalized citizen of the United States in 1900. These papers, together with a strong letter from Gov. Deane of Illinois, were presented to the American consul at Beyrout. The young Turks, cared about as much for the papers and letters as they did for the deposed sultan.

As a last resort, Mr. Sleyman appealed to the American minister at Constantinople, where he was "final" successful in securing his release. In spite of his unpleasant experience, Mr. Sleyman was able to complete successfully the business which called him back to his native land.

Mr. Sleyman has brought to Newark for exhibition only a beautiful specimen of Gobelin tapestry, "Samson Battling With the Philistines," and this will be on exhibition at the Meyer & Lindner store. He is planning to give a lecture on conditions in the East, the date and place of which will be announced later. Mr. Sleyman is a pleasing talker and he knows what he is talking about. His lecture will be worth hearing.

DR. KNAUSS STILL IN CHARGE OF OFFICE

Mayor Ankele, Attorney Link Russell and Health Officer W. H. Knauss attended a meeting of the state board of health at Columbus Wednesday evening. The Newark situation regarding the ordinance for a board of health was not touched upon by the state board upon request of both Mayor Ankele and Dr. Knauss. It was thought by these officials that local conditions in the health department could be settled without calling upon the state officials. In the meantime, Dr. Knauss is still legally acting as health officer.

If you are not yet registered you will have to do so tomorrow or Saturday if you wish to vote this fall. Polls open from 8 a. m. until 2 p. m. and from 4 to 9 p. m.

"Don't Let the Girl Get You." That is the theme that runs through the song of that name now being sung with immense success in the great musical farce "Alma, Where Do You Live?"

The words of the song are by Geo. V. Hobart, the well-known author, while Jean Briquet is given credit for the music.

This is the song and the play that is drawing the crowds to Weber's theatre, New York City.

And it is this song—the words and music complete—that will go free as a special feature with each copy of next Sunday's New York World.

A great newspaper and a great song for a few cents. Order a copy from your newsdealer in advance.

BOY SCOUTS ORGANIZATION

All boys between the ages of 12 and 18 who are interested in the boy scout movement are requested to meet at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, with Mr. Livingston and take the scouts' oath.

There are three classes of scouts—the tenderfoot, second class scout and first class scout.

Before becoming a tenderfoot a boy must pass the following test: Know the scouts' laws and signs; salute; know the history of the stars and stripes; tie the four standard knots. After serving as a tenderfoot for a month he is then given the tests for second class scout. Any boy in Newark between the ages of 12 and 18 years is invited to attend the meeting.

CURES RHEUMATISM; DESTROYS URIC ACID

The Antidote to Uric Acid Found Gives Remarkable Results.

Immediate relief to rheumatic sufferings, and an absolute, quick, safe cure. This is now assured, for the antidote to uric acid has been found. This antidote, in fact, is as safe as the air you breathe, yet it destroys every particle of uric acid in the blood and in every joint, muscle and part of the body. Mrs. D. G. Field, of Fulton, New York, says: "I have had excruciating rheumatism for years. I had to be wheeled about in a chair. Doctors take 'Pain' and 'Fuss' and do not cure. I took your 'Fuss' and after a few bottles of it cured me. I am now as well as ever." "Fuss" contains no cocaine, opium, morphine, alcohol, ether, chloroform, or any of the usual poisons. It is a genuine, safe, and powerful remedy for gout, rheumatism, and kidney trouble. "Fuss" Rheumatism Cure sold at all drug stores. Newark by J. W. Collins & Son, 12 W. Smith, T. J. Evans and Emma & Co. and by all leading druggists. It will be sent prepaid on receipt of $1.00 in 50c. bottles, or $2.00 in 100c. bottles, by the Fuss Food Co., Flint, Mich.

People Who Work Indoors With Their Hands

Seamstresses, watch-makers, artists, draughtsmen, and many others, cannot properly handle their tools with cold, stiff hands. Many a lost hour or two on cold winter mornings results from the delayed heat of furnace or stove.

The Perfection Oil Heater in a few minutes gives the temperature that assures the worker warm hands and pliable muscles. The quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

It has a damper top and a cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain, and cannot get lost.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.
